NOTICE TO PERSON ADMITTED FOR EMERGENCY COMMITMENT: Pursuant to the Provisions of Section 27-81-112, C.R.S. You are hereby notified that you have been accepted for emergency treatment on the basis of the application for emergency commitment as shown above and shall be given a copy of this application. You are further advised that you may be held for treatment until the grounds for emergency commitment no longer exist. In no event may you be held for a period longer than five (5) days unless a petition for involuntary commitment has been filed with the court. If a petition for involuntary commitment is filed with the court, you may be held until the petition is heard and determined but in no event may you be held for a period longer than ten (10) days from the filing of the petition. You have a right to challenge such detention by application to the courts for a writ of habeas corpus, to consult with and be represented by counsel at every state of any proceedings relating to your commitment and recommitment and to have counsel appointed by the court or provided by the court if you want assistance and are unable to obtain counsel.
